

Camps at MCA

MCA Fine Arts Camps offer students unique opportunities to try new and exciting things. Register your child today to ensure availability. Register on Parents Web under Web Forms - MCA Fine Arts Summer Camps.

Each camp is on a first come first serve basis with limited space. There is a $35 registration fee per camp to be paid to Metrolina Christian Academy when you register. Payment for camp should be made directly to the instructor before camp begins.

Back for their 4th summer, Sarah Lantigua (Director, Lanti Music) and Crystal Coleman (Artistic Director, MCA Dance) are teaming up to give your child an outstanding performing arts experience! A world of excitement will come alive as your child dresses in costume, sings songs, dances, and acts out scenes from popular musicals - The Lion King, The Greatest Showman, Alice in Wonderland, The Little Mermaid, Seussical, Highschool Musical, and more! Can't dance or sing? No worries - we have plenty of ways to make sure your child shines on stage. Join us this summer as we help strengthen performance and theatre skills while celebrating personal growth and friendships! Camp Performance: Friday at 2:00pm!

"Wow! I can't believe how much everyone learned in one week! The flashmob was a lot of fun and the camp performance was amazing! We can't wait till next summer!" - Parent, 5th-grade camper

Music and Drama Extravaganza is a new Fine Arts Camp being offered this summer. Students will receive training through group and individual instruction. Interactive learning and improvisation will foster creativity and build confidence to peak musical and theatrical interest in novices, while challenging and refining those students who are gifted in the performance arts. The week will culminate in a performance showcasing the students' talents on Friday, July 13 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Verna Clark, the instructor, joined the MCA staff as a full-time teacher this year and was the director of MCA's 2018 production of "Meet Me in St. Louis." She holds an MME degree from Winthrop University. She has served as a past Fine Arts director, taught music and drama for several years, directed numerous shows, and has been a vocal and theatre coach for students at the state and national levels.
